

Stages of writing

movement → scribbling → drawing → letters → words

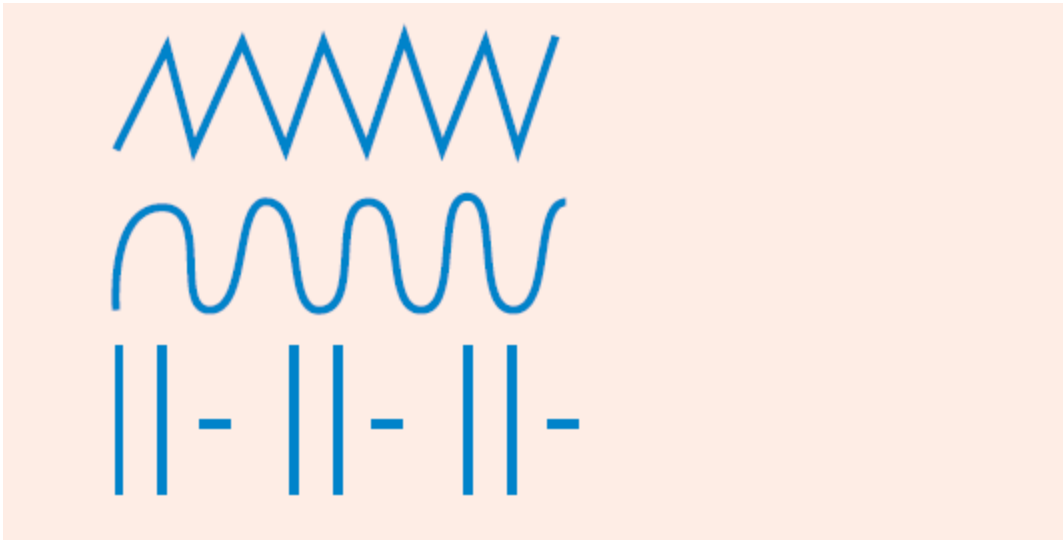

- Writing goes from left to right and across a page. Ask your child to draw between the lines with their finger or pencil.

- Drawing lines and shapes leads to making letter shapes. Ask your child to copy lines and shapes such as shown here.

- Complete the patterns here and make up new ones with your draw your own.

- You can use these and other patterns to decorate art work.